360Civic Completes West Basin Municipal Water District Website Redesign

Orange, CALIF. (March 21, 2017) - 360Civic, an Orange County based company that provides web development and technology services to public sector entities, as announced the appointment of Maria del Carmen Lamadrid to the position of Senior UX Designer.

“I’m delighted to be a part of the 360Civic team, and look forward to the challenges and opportunities of working on a wide range of public sector projects to serve our clients,” Lamadrid said.

Lamadrid joins the 360Civic team with nearly 10 years of design experience, mainly focusing on building design innovations and research methods in urban communities. She is a lecturer of design with courses in the School of Media, Culture & Design at Woodbury University and recent talks in the School of Design at Carnegie Mellon University.

As a UX Designer, she worked on public sector projects for SunLine Transit Agency, the Water Replenishment District of Southern California and the City of Mission Viejo.

“Maria will be an outstanding addition to our company,” said Bridget DiRico, CEO of 360Civic. “She has an innate ability to find creative solutions to any project, and I am sure our clients will appreciate the exceptional level of knowledge that she will bring to their website and technology projects.”
